Greetings to Everyone,

Many thanks to everyone who came for the meeting after mass last Sunday. It was good to hear some of your suggestions and thoughts on all the various issues in the parish. Let us continue to work together as a community and develop a mindset of a unified community in general. Please do continue to let me know of your thoughts on various issues and things. Don't assume I know about them! There were quite a few points that came up at the meeting that I hadn't heard and thought were excellent points. When there are issues in a family, the family doesn't just quit--it works together to come to an understanding, and, yes, we must all give and take. I was very pleased to have people speak their minds--now--keep going with this, and let us come together for your--our--parish. It will be interesting to see where religious life, the parish, the liturgy and the Church go in the next years and decades--and it is hard work--with patience needed by us all.

Thanks to all who made the first in our concert series a great success. It helped of course to have world class musicians for the first concert, but the beauty of the school, the high ceilings which gave excellent acoustics, and the hard work of many, paid off. We transformed the school rooms into an intimate concert hall setting for chamber music. It is good to have our buildings put to use.

If you saw a group of women at daily mass and the weekend masses these last few days, they are association of consecrated lay women--about 20, from all over the world who are up in this area for a retreat/gathering. At Vatican II, one of the possibilities put forth by the Church was to be a person who gave their lives fully to God, but didn't enter a convent. It might often mean also to take a vow of celibacy as well, and yet have a job, etc, as a single person in the world. There are many possibilities out there to answer our baptismal vocation to be saints!

Thank you to those who made additional contributions to our CSA shortfall, which brings us to just under $1000 left. Please consider an additional donation so we can avoid having to pay from Parish funds.

Looking forward to visiting your children at the Fair next week--who knows, we might even try to buy a pig there for our pig roast this Fall...

Blessings
 Fr Libby

Thank You—from the Raffle Committee

Thank you everyone! Our parish family outdid themselves with all of the donations, buying tickets, selling tickets, and the many prayers. The raffle would not have been a success without each and every one of you! Congratulations again to our winners listed in last week’s bulletin. We will have the final tally in next week’s bulletin as we don’t yet have all of the donations received and are finalizing the expenses. Thank you again for all of your support and prayers. Enjoy the rest of the summer — it’s the season that is too short in Northern Michigan. God bless!

Polish Interpreter Help is Needed

Do you speak or understand Polish, or know someone who does? Recently our office was contacted in the hopes that there is a parishioner, or member of the Cedar community, who may be able to help translate for a family in Traverse City whose Mother is in Hospice Care and has lapsed into her native language, leaving the family unable to communicate. Please call the Parish Office if you can help.

Daughters of Mercy

We are happily inviting any girl of high-school age to participate in a flexibly-organized group called the "Daughters of Mercy". Our aim is to provide a positive, Catholic environment of camaraderie for young women. Our time together will simply consist of prayer, sport and finishing school-type of activities. Please join us for our inaugural gathering on Friday, August 13th at 3pm in Holy Rosary church. Benediction will be at 3 o'clock and a recitation of the Divine Mercy chaplet at 3:15. Afterward, we will play a game of ultimate Frisbee! We are also asking any interested young adult women or moms to join us! Questions? Please ask Teresa Altman at 922-0943 or email lukealtman@gmail.com. See you there!
