Coming Soon

Thursday, October 20: 11:00 am Homeschool Mass at Cathedral

Dear All,

A Blessed Feast of Our Lady Queen of the Holy Rosary this Friday! We are blessed that we have a whole month to celebrate our Lady and her Rosary, the month of October, and it fittingly corresponds with the month of Respect Life. Don’t forget your Guardian Angels this Sunday, and also our secondary patron St Isadore is on Oct 25.

This whole week is a special week for us also. Make sure to take an hour (sign up in the vestibule) to stand up for the unborn Oct 4 and 5 outside of Planned Parenthood, and then pray for our Capital Campaign as well as the cause of life in our 40 hours devotion (still need people to sign up!) starting Thursday evening. We’ll also have our bi-annual mass at St Joseph’s this Thursday at 7pm just before the 40 hours starts. On our feast day, this Friday we’ll have two special masses during those forty hours, one with a procession. For the Extraordinary Form we’ll have a full chant high mass at 8:15am, and then in the evening our ordinary form parish mass starts at 7:30 pm with a procession and rosary at 7. And finally the big night of our dinner Saturday evening! Do come and join us throughout this week—for Our Lady, our parish, the unborn and the aged!

The slate arrived this week and started to make it’s way up to the roof, as the brick workers and sheet metal/coppersmith crew continued with their work. It really has been a blessing to have one company that specializes in all these things so that we can make a beautiful gift back to God of our treasures that He has entrusted to us. So much work has gone on behind the scenes to make this parish feast day, festival week and weekend an important event for all. Please do join us for prayer, mass, our parish dinner, and prayerfully protesting for the rights of the unborn. Your involvement DOES matter. God bless you.

Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, Pray for us!
 Fr. Libby

In the absence of natural-law reasoning, the Pope observed, politicians find it impossible to discern clear and objective standards of justice. Consequently, he said, there is a widespread perception "that an unbridgeable gulf exists between 'is' and 'ought.'" Positivism, with its insistence that reason cannot bridge the gap between facts and values, undermines the tradition on which society is built. the Holy Father in his address to the German Government.

The Father Fred Foundation Fall Food Drive will begin this Saturday Sept 24 and will be staffed by over one hundred volunteers throughout the week at neighborhood grocers featuring Spartan Brand products. Participating stores are: Tom's 14th Street, Tom's West Bay, Tom's East Bay, Tom's Acme, Oleson's Front Street, Oleson's Hammond Road, Glen's 8th Street, Glen's Chum's Corner, and Maxbauer on Union street. For all cash or food donations during the 8 days of the drive the Oleson Foundation will match those values dollar for dollar up to $20,000. Checks must be postmarked by October 1 to qualify for the challenge. Proceeds from the Food Drive will go to the Father Fred Food Pantry where visits are up 31% over the same period of 2010. Organizers hope to stock the pantry through early February. Visit www.fatherfred.org for more information.

Thank You

We received a lovely note from the Northern Michigan Ave Maria Founders, congratulating us on our food and thanking us for our effort for the dinner held at Holy Rosary featuring Tom Monaghan "Your hospitality was so very much appreciated and the food raved about by our guests." A MESSAGE FROM FR. LIBBY

Work continues to come along on the roof and tower — beware of falling objects as you enter Church from the rear during daily masses. We want to keep everyone safe so all the doors are locked except the very back where there is no work going on. Pretty soon we'll move into the slate stage of the project, and we'll see some new faces come up from Grand River Builders for that work, and the important aspect of the sheet metal. I've made no further climbs up to the top, but I'll try to make it back up there and do another video due to popular demand! I'm glad you've enjoyed visiting our website with videos from the top (www.holyrosarycedar.org).

We're gearing up for our main parish dinner on October 8 after the 4pm mass. I really hope to see you there. It will be a great chance to show our camaraderie and support for the parish as well as to give and sacrifice of our time, talent and treasure for our Church needs. Thanks to all who are working so hard on getting the dinner organized as well as this Newsletter — so many behind the scenes helpers!

God bless,

Fr. Libby

A WALK DOWN MEMORY LANE OF HOLY ROSARY (by Judy LaCross)

Glenn and I purchased our lovely farm from Pete Sharnowski in 1972, joining Holy Rosary Parish soon after. Here we were, a French man from St Mary Lake Leelanau, a German girl from St Mary Hannah (Kingsley), moving into a very Polish parish! I loved the fact that there was an elementary school at HR since we anticipated God's gift of children, and wanted a Catholic education for them as was our good fortune. An interesting thing to me was that the two-story brick school building was the exact same style as our school had been at Hannah, and judging from pictures of the wooden HR church, it was of the same architectural style as Hannah's church too! Fr Arthur Mulka was the HR pastor at that time, very "old-school" yet personable, and he visited us in our home.

1910—Holy Rosary and school children

A few years later, when our eldest daughter Suzanna was ready for school, HR was our choice. A few years after that Ben followed, then Maria. They all received a solid education in the basics, but what impressed me even more were the "extras" that helped shape them into the adults they are today. Some examples were: solid instruction in matters of our faith and religion; leadership responsibilities in serving Mass, lecturing, or playing music for Mass; helping with younger students – it was like one big family in grades 1-8, and later K-6 – everyone enjoyed playing together on the playground, 8th graders with the little ones, with the same kinds of interaction in the lunch room or in any mixed-level activities. I loved that there was a surprising emphasis on the arts, creative writing (even a monthly school newspaper), lots of plays, special grandparent days. Moms (not many stay-at-home dads in those days!) all rotated to assist the cook in the prep and serving of daily hot lunch. EVERYTHING was made from scratch in the early days – my kids still rave about Betty's cinnamon rolls, homemade French fries, and meat gravy atop real mashed potatoes (Betty's husband Ray would peel all the potatoes!). The Christmas plays were elaborate productions, with attendance absolutely filling the church. Of course, all the kids were well-versed in Polish carols and hymns.

These memories represent just a small sample of all the great things that happened at HR School and Parish many years ago, but seem like yesterday. I am convinced that my children could not have done as well in high school or with their adult choices, had it not been for the sound and creative educational experiences they had in our little Polish parish. And while time marches on, and many things have to change, so does our little church on the hill. New and exciting things are happening here... young families are joining, growing and raising their children here. Our century-old church building still stands tall with spiritual and natural beauty, providing the sacraments and a place to grow in love and service to our Lord. Our school now has a renewed mission... music fills the renovated concert hall in the summer, children's footsteps still are heard as they arrive for Faith Formation classes. And a wonderful Catholic book and gift store provide our area with food for the soul, beauty for the home. This is an exciting time of growth and restoration for our church and our families.

Our family may have been part of the early stages of HR becoming a sort of "melting pot" of families from different ethnic backgrounds, coming from many different areas, yet all drawn to the little parish on the hill – with absolutely THE most beautiful church anywhere in northern Michigan!

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE THING ABOUT HOLY ROSARY?

Holy Rosary Parishioner, Michelle Salgat, is a home schooling mother of four children. Her family feels blessed to be a part of this parish family and she invited her children to share their thoughts.

"The playground!" (Gabriel Salgat, age 7)

"Faith Formation and donuts after mass." (Rosemary Salgat, age 9)

"Friends!" (Jacob Salgat, age 11)

"I love being part of Holy Rosary. As a kid, it makes me feel important to be part of it. Whether teaching choir or learning hymns, every kid has a roll to play. I love how close this parish is too. For example, all the boys play football or soccer together and become fast friends. As exciting as that is, the ice-skating is my absolute favorite activity. I love to skate, especially under the sky filled with fresh falling snowflakes. Just another wonderful miracle. Also, my siblings and I always look forward to the All Saints Party. We all love Holy Rosary and look forward to the new activities in the up coming year." (Maria Salgat, age 14)
