Care will be available: Friday February 12th from 8:00 am – 3:00 pm at 1330 S. West Bay Shore Dr. in Traverse City from Dr. Stephen Kozelko, Dr. Craig Fountain and Dr. Daniel Madion.

Chicken Dinner Raffle Update The third week of our KICKOFF went well, with many pledges and donations received. Thank you so much for your generosity! They are all very much appreciated! There is still a ways to go and a need for additional cash donations and prizes. Consider how your donation will multiply! Please call Joan Gauthier @ 228-6179 or Shirley Mikowski @ 228-3406 with your donation or mail them to Joan Gauthier. You have the option of being anonymous so please indicate that with a note attached to your check. The raffle will be successful only because of your support. Please remember how valuable your gift is in helping to make needed repairs and improvements to our beautiful church and grounds. Please keep the upcoming dinner and raffle in your prayers. God bless you all, Shirley Mikowski and Joan Gauthier.

TAG

The next TAG gathering will be on Valentine's Day, February 14th from 4-6 pm (note time change for this week). We'll meet at St. Rita's and carpool to the Maple Valley Nursing Facility to deliver Valentines, candy, and to sing love songs. Blessings upon our teens and their families!

Sincere Thanks

The family of Herman Ginther would like to sincerely thank everyone for their support during this time of loss. God Bless you. With love, Rita

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT WITH BENEDICTION A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

With Most Reverend Bernard Hebda
Fourth Bishop of Gaylord

"In the Eucharist, the Son of God comes to meet us and desires to become one with us; Eucharistic Adoration is simply the natural consequence of the Eucharistic celebration, which is itself the Church's supreme act of adoration. Receiving the Eucharist means adoring Him who we receive. Only in this way do we become one with Him, and are given, as it were, a foretaste of the beauty of the heavenly liturgy. The act of adoration outside Mass prolongs and intensifies all that takes place during the liturgical celebration itself. Indeed, only in adoration can a profound and genuine reception mature. And it is precisely this personal encounter with the Lord that then strengthens the social mission contained in the Eucharist, which seeks to break down not only the walls that separate the Lord and ourselves, but also and especially the walls that separate us from one another."

Pope Benedict XVI
Sacramentum Caritatis, 66

With these words, Our Holy Father clearly calls the faithful to pray before Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. It is in this personal encounter with Jesus, itself a reflection of the encounter in the reception of Communion, which gives the faithful the strength to pursue the life of holiness that is built by an embrace of virtue. It is also in this encounter with Jesus that we make our most urgent desires known to Him, for He sees into the depths of our hearts and leads us to a deeper unity with Himself. Therefore, we present this model of a "Holy Hour for Vocations" in each vicariate as an opportunity for the faithful to gather before Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament and not only to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, religious life, and lay leadership, but also to pray for the strength necessary to pursue a life of holiness through a model of virtue.

Please join Bishop Hebda during this opportunity to pray for an increase of vocations at the following places and times:

Friday, February 26	11:00 a.m. 7:00 p.m.	St. Ann Parish in Cadillac (Southwest Vicariate) St. Ann Parish in Frankfort (Southwest Vicariate)
Monday, March 1	11:00 a.m. 7:00 p.m.	St. Francis of Assisi in Lewiston (Central Vicariate) St. Thomas Aquinas in Elmira (Central Vicariate)
Wednesday, March 10	11:00 a.m. 7:00 p.m.	Sacred Heart Church in Oscoda (Southeast Vicariate) St. Helen Parish in St. Helen (Southeast Vicariate)
Friday, March 12	10:00 a.m. 7:00 p.m.	St. Ignatius Church in Rogers City (Northeast Vicariate) St. Anne in Alpena (Northeast Vicariate)
Monday, March 22	11:00 a.m. 7:00 p.m.	St. Augustine Church in Boyne Falls (Central Vicariate) St. Mary/St. Charles in Cheboygan (Northern Vicariate)
Wednesday, March 24	11:00 a.m. 7:00 p.m.	St. Philip in Empire (Western Vicariate) Christ the King Parish in Acme (Western Vicariate)

After the prayer, all will have a chance to meet the new Bishop at a reception hosted by the churches of the vicariate at the place of the Holy Hour.

If you are interested in helping in any way, (reception, music, Scripture Reader, Server, etc.) please contact the hosting parish for more information. You may also contact the Secretariat for Worship & Liturgical Formation.

Paid for in part by your CSA donations.

Adoration

by Paul Turner

Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament draws the worshiper into spiritual communion with God. Whether done on one's own time or at a scheduled service, adoration of the Eucharistic presence of Christ fosters our devotion for participation in the Mass.

Jesus instituted the Eucharist for our eating and drinking. Sharing communion at Mass brings us nourishment, healing and sustenance. There is no substitute for participation in the Eucharist; adoration should enhance it, not replace it.

Catholics reserve leftover communion breads in a tabernacle. The primary purpose for this custom is to have the Body of Christ ready for the dying at any time. The tabernacle also provides communion for the sick or those unable to come to Mass. Because it houses the sacramental Body of Christ, it serves as a place for adoration.

Adoration may be private or public. When adoring the Blessed Sacrament in private, Catholics usually go to any church, where the communion hosts are kept inside the tabernacle. They say whatever prayers they wish. Public adoration may take place in the context of a brief service (traditionally called "Benediction" although that only refers to the blessing which concludes it) or over a more extended period of time. The Blessed Sacrament is usually presented for adoration outside the tabernacle on an altar or a stand.

Extended periods of adoration used to be common. They filled the void for people who were not receiving communion frequently. However, in the twentieth century, the church has urged people to more frequent communion and has forbidden exposition during Mass. Participation in the Eucharist at Mass accomplishes spiritual communion more perfectly and renders simultaneous adoration unnecessary. Prolonged periods of adoration may happen in church where a large number of the faithful are gathering and when the bishop has given his approval. If Mass is celebrated, the Blessed Sacrament should be returned to the tabernacle.

Whether the Blessed Sacrament is inside or outside the tabernacle, adoration may invite us into prayer and prepare us for the Eucharist.

Benediction

by Paul Turner

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is a service of worship and blessing centered on the Catholic belief in the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. It began in the Middle Ages as a popular devotional exercise. In recent years the frequency of its celebration has lessened, but it remains in our liturgical books. Some older Catholics remember it fondly; some younger Catholics have never heard of it.

After Vatican Council II, the Catholic Church revised its order of service for Benediction along with all the other liturgical rites. The full title, "Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction," helps explain its purpose. The faithful gaze at an unconsumed host from a previous Mass and worship the presence of the risen Christ in that host.

The ceremony has four parts: exposition, adoration, benediction, and reposition. During exposition, the minister goes to the tabernacle and removes a large host reserved there. Placing it in a monstrance (a windowed liturgical vessel which displays the host), the minister sets the object of our devotion on the altar. The period of adoration may be lengthy. Prayers, Scripture readings, songs, homily, and silence may fill the time. At the close of this period, if the minister is a priest or a deacon, he blesses the assembly with the monstrance and says a concluding prayer. This blessing is the benediction from which the service derives its name. If a communion minister is presiding, he or she does not give a blessing. Finally, the minister removes the Blessed Sacrament from the monstrance and places it back in the tabernacle, an action called "reposition."

Traditionally, Catholics have sung two popular eucharistic hymns during the adoration, "O Salutaris Hostia" and "Pange Lingua" but any eucharistic hymn will serve. A litany of acclamations to God "The Divine Praises," usually concluded benediction, but the revised liturgy does not specifically include them. Any acclamation or song of praise may close the service.

Benediction enhances our devotion to the Eucharist and whets our appetite for the Mass. The main reason we have eucharistic bread is to consume it in communion with one another and with Christ. However, it may also serve as an object of praise, a vision of the great treasure we share at every Mass.
