From Fr. Nursey

Ave Maria!

May God give you his peace.

Our Lord and Lady have so disposed things that I have become your pastor. Jesus and Mary have appointed me to lay down my life for you. And I assure you that with their help I will do so. God's love has led us all to the points in our lives in which we currently find ourselves. His love beckons us and inspires us to continue on the road to greater sanctity and his glorification. The journey has not ended. The journey continues.

I greatly appreciate everyone for so graciously welcoming me, while retaining a reverence and a place in your heart for Fr. Libby. This is how it should be. With great gratitude for the foundation that has been laid, we are to move forward with enthusiasm, ever growing in holiness and serving God and our Lady of the Rosary with pure hearts and deep affection.

I look forward to the coming years with all of you, getting to know you better and becoming more and more united as the body of Christ. God is love. And in his love we will only grow.

Our great Chicken Dinner is only a week away. Please make sure that you show up for your Chicken Dinner duty. Every person fulfilling their duty is important. Clearly, without assistance, the Chicken Dinner would not happen at all, but what is more is to think of all the merit you will be racking up in heaven by being faithful to your commitment and diligently carrying out responsibilities!

Youngsters have repeatedly asked me about "Cooking and Catechism." So in response to such popular demand, we will be having two "Cooking and Catechism" events in August. They will be on the evenings of Monday, August 10 and Monday, August 24. I asked one of the children who requested it, "Which is your favorite part, the Cooking or the Catechism?" She replied, "Play."

I understand that there's quite a subculture to these events, which delights me very much. A child once asked St John Vianney whether he should study or play and St John Vianney answered that he should play, because it was the privilege of his age. So whether you come for the cooking, the catechism or to play, all of these are integral to human life and lead to the fulfillment of the human person. So I look forward to seeing you there!

I am honored and pleased to be at Holy Rosary. It is a great grace from God. Now let us pray for each other as we boldly enter into a new adventure of life!

In the love of the Sacred and Immaculate Hearts,

Fr. Nursey

The goal of this mission is to spread the faith to Catholics in college, students who have fallen away from the faith, & those who are searching and bring them into the Catholic faith through bible studies, deeper prayer, and Catholic community. If you are interested in learning more or donating to the cause, please stop by after Mass this weekend, reach out via phone/text (307) 287-0058, or join her giving page at: <https://focus.org/missionaries/morgan-schwartz/>
