From Father Libby

What a great chicken dinner. 1344 was the number of dinners which is excellent. Huge thanks to Kristen, and Jan for staying on one more year, Ed and Dorothy for bridging the gap to the next generation, and on and on; big thanks are due to so many. Glenn and Judy for the reefer and pie donations, all the knights and dads for help with the tent, and great to see some 'out of retirement' faces helping with the tent too! It worked out well this year, taking down the tent during the raffle drawing, and speaking of, congratulations to Morgan for the top prize! What a great community event. Huge thanks to all who showed up Friday morning to help with the chicken. The extra help really went a long way to making that morning manageable.

Raffle ladies, what can I say? Joan and Shirley, just amazing what you two do every year, and all that contributed and sold tickets! And John for giving Joan a run for her money in selling tickets (they tied at how many they sold.)

Up here on Mackinac this (past) week, we had a big family reunion as we do every couple of years; so good to see all the relatives; big thanks to everyone who made them feel at home last weekend at Cedar before coming up here. It was fun to have them all pile into the loft and sing at mass. It's good to get refreshed and have a few days with family—all so different but we manage quite well getting along. Every gathering we have an epic game of croquet up by the fort, a bike ride around the island, of course, and fried pickles at the Cannonball over on the other side of the island, among other things.

I was thrilled to hear that in Georgia they are counting the unborn as dependents, a great victory for the cause of life. We, as Catholics, already know life begins at conception (fertilization), but the country is now fighting about defining it by viability or other means. I'm looking forward to hearing how the case in Texas goes where a woman claimed her unborn child as a passenger to be able to drive in the commuter lane. One of the readings in the Breviary this week attributed to Barnabas (so around 50 AD) says this: "Love your neighbor more than you own life. Do not kill an unborn child through abortion, nor destroy it after birth. Do not refrain from chastising son or daughter, but bring them up from childhood in the fear of the Lord." For Catholics who have bought into the media's arguments on abortion, this is a good wake-up call. This teaching has been this way since the beginning. If we don't end up chastising our children appropriately, with love, they or we end up killing other children. As Mother Teresa said, abortion leads to nuclear war, so the lack of chastising children leads to abortion because both are about not truly caring for children.

It is beautiful how many people either greeted me 'Hello Father' or said 'Thank you, Father' as I walked around Mackinac, that they were remembering God amidst their recreation. This is what we all want to do, to bring God into everything we do. That is the life of true virtue. We don't want to compartmentalize our faith; live a certain way at church, but then differently at home or out and about. We all, even though you are not wearing clerics, hopefully, by the way we act, dress, and speak, are living witnesses to the culture of life.

God bless,
Father
