From Father Nursey

Happy Holy Rosary Month, everyone!

This is our month! Everyday is a good day to be alive. Every month is a good month to be alive. However, October is special for us here at Holy Rosary. October is the "official" month of the rosary! As we here at Holy Rosary Parish have a special connection to Our Lady of the Rosary, hopefully we have a special connection to the Rosary itself. As Our Lady has revealed to us through her many apparitions, praying the rosary daily is a sign of "predestination." That is a very nice way of saying that those who pray the Rosary every day are likely going to go heaven.

We note that we must never give up the good fight and in the midst of that fight the rosary gives us great peace of mind. When we look at the fact that we pray the rosary everyday, we realize that we are every day calling to mind Jesus and Mary, thinking about the events in their lives. This daily drawing closer to Jesus and Mary and their lives here on Earth makes it easier for us to live out the good that God expects for us to do in our own lives. We have their examples of virtue before us, for us to imitate in our own ways in accordance with God's will for us.

Through the rosary we are continually praying to Mary, continually conversing with her. Mary will only lead us into a deeper friendship. The deeper the friendship we have with Mary, the greater the union we have with God. If we are clinging to our mother who is the Queen of heaven, then we will surely be saved. Fortunately, we are here in Cedar have a parish dedicated to our own mother, Queen of the most Holy Rosary.

Recently there have been some unfortunate situations relating to crying children. I have spoken of this publicly at Mass and am writing it as well. I want to be very clear.

I WANT FAMILIES AT HOLY ROSARY PARISH.

There is no policy at Holy Rosary that says that crying babies must go outside. There is no mandatory policy that a crying baby even needs to be taken to the vestibule or into the cry room.

That said, in charity to those around you, if you notice that your child is causing a distraction to others and YOU ARE ABLE, it would be charitable to take your child into the vestibule, the cry room, or down into the Parish Hall, where you can still hear Mass over the speakers.

I have instructed the ushers that they are not to direct people from their pews or out of the church as a result of a crying child.

I absolutely want children and families at Holy Rosary. I have never given instructions to anyone to have a parent and a crying child leave. As I am glad for human life and fellow worshipers of our good God, I ask that you be prudent in your decision making of utilizing the vestibule, the cry room or the Parish Hall downstairs. I do not see problems here, I do, however, see potential future choir members.

In the love of Our Lady of the Rosary,
Fr. Nursey
